Delaney of DMC Re-Elected Chair of The Greater Pittsburgh Salvation Army Advisory Board

Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C. is pleased to announce that Daniel R. Delaney, Senior Counsel in the Pittsburgh office, has been re-elected as Chairman of the Advisory Board of The Salvation Army. He has served on the Board since 1998 and as its Chairman from 2007. The Advisory Board is comprised of 44 members who are representatives of major corporations and agencies located in the Greater Pittsburgh Area.

“With the demand for services increasing in this recessive economy, it has been an increasing challenge to help those in our community most in need,” Mr. Delaney said.

Mr. Delaney has practiced law over 30 years with an emphasis on Labor and Employment Law. In addition to other clients, he now serves as outside general counsel for a large continuing care retirement non-profit corporation serving the elderly population in the tri-state area.

About Greater Pittsburgh Salvation Army

The Greater Pittsburgh Salvation Army encompasses twelve program and service areas, staffed entirely by volunteers, that include Emergency Disaster Services, Family Crisis Center, Harbor Light Center (treatment facility for chemically dependent men), homeless drop-in shelter, and Project Bundle-Up, to name only a few of the programs and services that The Salvation Army offers to thousands of needy individuals and families each year in the greater Allegheny County region. From programs for youth to seniors and human services ranging from food to shelters, The Greater Pittsburgh Salvation Army serves its recipients on a personal case-by-case basis under an operating budget of more than $15.7 million.

Funded by public support, government fees/grants, and generous contributions obtained by its campaigns, including the Christmas Red Kettle Campaign, The Salvation Army utilizes 89% of each dollar for the delivery of its services. Both a church and social service organization, The Salvation Army began in London, England, in 1865 and today provides these critical services in 125 countries worldwide.
