Joe Golian Named to Motts Military Museum Board

Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C. is pleased to announce that Joseph J. Golian, Shareholder-in-Charge of the firm's Columbus office, has been elected to the Motts Military Museum's Board of Directors.

Mr. Golian expressed his appreciation in being asked to join the organization's board. "It is a privilege to be involved in preserving history in order to educate our youth and honor those that fought for our freedoms." As Shareholder-in-Charge, Mr. Golian leads the Columbus office in professional and civic activities, including their participation in the Mid-Ohio Foodbank.

The Motts Military Museum was founded in 1987 as a not-for-profit educational organization. The mission of the museum is to educate the public on the importance of America's military through documentation, collection, interpretation, and preservation of artifacts and stories of the men and women who served and are serving in the United States Armed Forces.

Mr. Golian's practice is focused on commercial vehicle transportation. He earned his J.D. at Capital University Law School and earned a bachelor's degree in economics at Washington & Jefferson College.
